COVID-19: Cancellation Notice for Songs of the Dragon Kiln on 23 & 24 May 2020

Singapore, 3 Apr 2020 – In view of the evolving COVID-19 situation, our partner Singapore Chinese Cultural Centre (新加坡华族文化中心) has cancelled the Cultural Extravaganza (华彩) 2020. As Ding Yi's concert Songs of the Dragon Kiln 《龙窑陶乐》 on 23 and 24 May 2020 is part of the Cultural Extravaganza 2020, the concert will be cancelled.

Ding Yi continues to monitor the COVID-19 situation closely and adhere to the advisory and guidelines announced by the government. The well-being of our patrons and stakeholders are of utmost importance to us.

About Ding Yi

Established in 2007, Ding Yi is Singapore's most prodigious Chinese chamber music ensembles. The ensemble has captivated audiences with its distinctive approach to music making and dedication to showcasing a vast repertoire that ranges from traditional Chinese music to contemporary interpretations and cross-genre works, and collaborated with prominent Chinese musicians including Min Huifen and Lu Chunling in many concerts, receiving accolades from critics and audiences alike.

Since emerging first at the National Chinese Music Competition organised by the National Arts Council (NAC), Singapore in 2008, Ding Yi continues to advocate and promote its unique Singapore sound – Ding Yi Chinese chamber music locally and overseas, such as China, Malaysia, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Philippines, United Kingdom, Australia, Germany, and Uzbekistan. Ding Yi is also a proud recipient of the NAC Major Company Scheme in 2016. For more information, please visit www.dingyimusic.com.
